PwC invites companies to participate in PayWell 2012 Ukraine – the annual labour market study

Kyiv – August 14, 2012 – PwC is in the process of preparing a new annual labour market study called “PayWell 2012 Ukraine”.

The participants of the survey receive practical and reliable information on current practices and trends in the remuneration of Ukrainian personnel. They are provided with access to a database of salary statistics for more than 300 jobs.

The study covers the general labour market, the regions (Kyiv, West, North-Central, South-East) and the oblasts of Ukraine, as well as several separate economic sectors:

- Agricultural Sector
- Automotive Sector
- Banking Sector
- Construction Sector / Real Estate
- Energy Sector
- Financial Sector
- FMCG Sector
- Health Care Services / Medical Facilities
- Hotels, Spas, Restaurants
- Information & Communication Technologies Sector
- Insurance Sector
- Leasing Services
- Legal Services
- Logistics and Forwarding Services
- Manufacturing Sector
- Mass Media
- Mechanical Engineering
- Non-profit Organizations
- Oil and Gas Sector
- Pharmaceutical Sector
- TV Sector
- Trade and Distribution
- Transport Services

PwC can also add other sectors to the survey provided a sufficient number of participants from the sector sign up for the PayWell 2012 Ukraine survey.

Statistical data is collected as of 1 September 2012.

All participants complete a special questionnaire and provide their data to PwC by 30 September 2012. Assuming participants complete their questionnaires in a timely manner, PwC anticipates providing salary results (pay levels) to participants shortly after 15 November 2012.

Each potential participant may download a PayWell 2011 demo version (and a complimentary copy of the full report PayWell 2011 Ukraine may be available to existing clients of PwC Ukraine upon separate request).

If you would like to participate in the salary survey PayWell 2012 Ukraine or to purchase the report, please contact:
